DESIDERATA

GO PLACIDLY AMID THE NOISE & HASTE, &
REMEMBER WHAT PEACE THERE MAY BE IN SILENCE. AS FAR AS POSSIBLE WITHOUT
surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly & clearly; and listen to others, even the dull & ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud & aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain & bitter; for always there will be greater & lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity & disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue & loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees & the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors & aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your self. With all its sham, drudgery & broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

FOREIGN TRAVEL

FRANCE

On June 19, nine French students, chaperoned by Mrs. Burleson, left the Raleigh airport for a one week stay in Paris, France. They visited such famous sights as the Louvre Museum, the Arc de Triomphe, and, of course, the Eiffel Tower. The students were allowed three free days to do some sightseeing on their own. They visited a perfume factory and attended a cookery school, as well as a wine and cheese tasting party. Some students even danced French-style at one of Paris' many discotheques. The group also took an excursion through the French countryside to the Palace of Versailles, the fabulous home of King Louis XIII. The excursion continued to Chartres for a tour of the famous cathedral known for its magnificent stained glass windows. (Photos A and B)

ITALY

Buono giorno! During spring vacation of 1979, approximately fifteen students from SSHS traveled to Europe for a ten-day stay in Italy. The students, chaperoned by Mrs. Helen Workman, toured over ten cities including Rome, Venice, Pisa, Naples, and the Isle of Capri. The travelers visited the Vatican Museum, Sistene Chapel, and attended a blessing by the Pope on Palm Sunday. The sightseers also enjoyed dancing Italian style at a disco in Sorrento, and they even took a gondola ride across the canals of Venice. The tourists enjoyed the sightseeing of Italy, but the best part of the trip was making new friends such as Simone, the tour director, and Pica Norberto, the bus driver. (Photos C, H, and I)

ENGLAND

Seven St. Stephens students and their sponsor, Ms. Sigmon, spent their 1979 Easter vacation touring London and the surrounding countryside. Among the many places visited were Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, Stonehenge, and Oxford University. The students not only saw famous places but famous people as well. While touring Winchester Cathedral, they saw Queen Elizabeth, and Prime Minister Callahan was seen leaving his home. Attending Agatha Christie's play, A Murder is Around, and a midnight snack at MacDonald's ended the week long stay. (Photos D, E, F, and G)

Spring was in the air as sixty-two of St. Stephens's most beautiful girls vied for the title of Miss St. Stephens 1979. After a long period of deliberation, Lorie Houston was crowned the queen. Cheryl Goforth and Judy Sigmon were the first and second runners-up, respectively. Simone Ewing was chosen Miss Congeniality by her fellow contestants. The pageant was sponsored by the P.T.A. and directed by Mrs. Grace Vaught. Mr. Tony Andrew displayed his colorful wit while acting as Master of Ceremonies. The night will be a lasting memory in the hearts of many of the girls.

FANTASY ISLAND

"Fantasy Island" became reality on May 4, at the 1979 Junior-Senior Prom. The Junior Class, various faculty members, and Mrs. Rita McBride spent many hours decorating for the occasion. The outside area of the gym became a tropical garden, and the gym was converted into a magnificent ballroom. Music was provided by the band "Lyric." The twenty sophomore waiters and waitresses added to the entertainment by performing an island dance. The big moment of the evening came with the crowning of the Prom Queen, Rebecca Lytle, who was crowned by special guest, Billy Arthur, Jr.

HOMECOMING 1979

The first day of homecoming week was victorious for the juniors who won the wall decorating contest among the classes. On Tuesday, "Lick 'em Day," the cheerleaders sold suckers to the student body, and students competed for the best decorated locker and the largest class spirit ball. Pennies collected during the day were exchanged at the end of the day for pieces of tinfoil to make each class spirit ball. The juniors again won in the competition. Wednesday, "Beat the Bears Day," proved to be exciting for the guys who vied for the title, "Mr. Irresistible." The girls who bought red or white ribbons had to forfeit one for each time they said anything other than "Beat the Bears" to a guy. Rick Houser was deemed "Mr. Irresistible" for collecting the most ribbons that day. Wednesday night's bonfire warmed Indian spirits. Thursday, "Red and White Day," students cheered proudly and made wishes at the outside pep rally. Finally, Homecoming '79 arrived. During halftime of the game, class representatives and their escorts were introduced. The freshman class representatives were Cindy Brookshire and Lori White; the sophomore class representatives, Lisa Lingerfelt and Lynn Lytle; the junior class representatives, Terri Hollar and Vicki McIntosh; the senior class representatives, Jewey Darnell, Cheryl Goforth, Velvet Hollar, and Kelly Patton. Velvet Hollar was crowned 1979 Homecoming Queen. Homecoming ended with St. Stephen's victory over Bunker Hill.

"THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th"

"The Night of January 16th," a play by Ayn Rand, was performed by the St. Stephens Drama class last spring. The plot centered around the trial of Karen Andre, a young woman accused of killing her boss and lover, Bjorn Faulkner. Jurors for the trial were selected from the audience, and witnesses who testified for or against the defendant made it extremely hard for the jury to arrive at a verdict. Both the district attorney, Terry Walker, and the defense attorney, Monte Mitchell, did an excellent job in questioning the witnesses. Miss Andre, portrayed by Carma Paris, was found not guilty on May 17th and 19th, and guilty on May 20th. The play was under the direction of Lori Wolford, a drama student at Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Janice,

You're a very sweet girl with a lot of happiness inside of you, always ready to let some laughter out. You're a pretty girl; stay that way, it won't be hard to. Oh, you'll also have pretty legs.

The Extended Day School operates on the same calendar as day school. The requirements for graduation are two math courses, one U.S. History, one social studies, one biology, one science, four English, one Health and P.E., and seven electives. All of these subjects are available in Extended Day, and the students work at their own pace.

The students have participated in a variety of activities since the beginning of school. They built three fair booths in the Catawba County Fair, winning second place for all three. Other activities included attending the Southern Living Show, and visiting the Drexel-Heritage Furniture Company.

At the end of the school year the food service students will prepare a meal for the Bosses Banquet. All the supervisors are invited by the students who work under them. The food service also caters to a variety of events during the school year.

Tiffanie,

Well the year is almost over and I think we're going to make it. Over the year we have had some great times and in turn some not so great times. We have been through alot together with Todd (your + mine), Chris, Stacey, ~~Gypsy~~ etc. and I couldn't have gotten through any of it without you to talk some since into me. You've always been there when I needed to talk and you listen and knew what to say. I hope our friendship is always this close. In Biology we had some good times (dissecting) however you spell it. At the Valentines Party I had a great time. Don't feel bad about. Thanks for all the times you took me to the library and just out to have fun. Maybe sometime soon I can pay you back. You a terrific person with a great personality so stay that way and I know you'll go far in life and do great in anything you do. Maybe next year we can be in more than one class together. Have a great summer. I'll probably see ya. Be have. Good luck! and all that stuff.

Lori Morgan, Editor-in-Chief

Another CORONA is finally finished and with its completion my year as Editor ends. I have immensely enjoyed getting to know exactly what goes into the production of a yearbook, and what makes it something for everyone to enjoy.

There are many people who had a part in the preparation of this year's annual. I would like to thank Mr. Leon Lewis, our Delmar representative; Mr. James Yount, who took many of our photographs Mrs. Roxann Poovey, our business advisor; Sarah Echerd, Business Editor; and the entire business staff. Next, I would like to thank my CORONA Editorial Staff. We laughed and we cried together, but more importantly, we became a family. Finally, I would like to give special recognition to Miss Laura Echerd, our editorial advisor. She cheered me up when things looked rough, and she gave me all the advice I needed.

I want to dedicate this 1980 CORONA to you, the Student Body of St. Stephens. These pages of memories are all yours. Look through the pictures and remember what happened here. You loved, you grew, you cried, and most of all, you made St. Stephens a place to be proud of.

To next year's staff I wish all the luck in the world.

Give your new editor all your support, meet your deadlines, and work together.

Lori Morgan

This year has been one that will always be remembered by almost every student at St. Stephens. For me, it will stand out as one of hard work, fun, and a great deal of worrying about meeting CORONA deadlines. Anyone who works on either staff of the CORONA truly understands what I mean.

I want to thank Miss Laura Echerd and Lori Morgan for the help they provided to me throughout the entire year. I wish to express my deepest appreciation to Mrs. Roxann Poovey.She gave me advice and assistance, as well as acting as my "sounding board" when things got rough. And I would like to thank my staff, who worked to make this a year I will never forget.

In the midst of all the credits, I wish to extend my sincere gratitude to all of the area businesses for helping to support our annual. Without the aid of these people, this CORONA could not exist.

I wish the best of luck to the 1980-1981 CORONA Business Editor and the staff.

Sarah Echerd

Janice,

I hope you know I consider you one of my closest friends. You always will be. We have so much fun together. For example - Lincolnton?, Playmore, the mall, "paying bills", shall I continue? You've always been there when I needed you. You given me strength (the mall) I hope you know what I'm talking about. You have a great personality. You'll go far in life. Cause I know you. I hope good things come to you when you get older. I hope you don't have that many bad times. If you do I hope you will get over them in a hurry. You're a very sweet girl! Don't ever change! I hope I'll see alot of you this summer. Hopefully I'll get to go to playmore sometime. Don't be a stranger! Maybe next year we'll have some classes together! Wouldn't that be a blast? We would never get any work done! (Do I ever?) I hope someday you'll meet that special guy. It would be a shame not to after all of these years of trying. Just kidding. You know I love ya. Good luck in the future and Best Wishes.

Love,
Bambi

Janice,

Kimey

Janice,

It's been great knowing you this past year well last year to but not this good. The first thing I think about in knowing you last year was Todd and Chris, Todd being Mr. Translater in the school yard first talking to Chris then you, then Todd yelling to Chris, you getting embarassed, Chris 10 shades Redder than you always. But now it's no Todd and Chris saying how bad his neck hurts. By the way I don't know if it's true about Cynthia and Todd going out Chris doesn't think so, but Cynthia says he called her Friday and Saturday, was to call her back on Wednesday but he didn't I guess that means they are not going out on Friday. O.K. moving on to other subjects. Valentine's Party coming in, you on the piano stool, Bambi and Sonya on one side of the room Jeff, Sonny, and Chuck seating in a row like the 3 Stoogies how ever you spell it. Me walking in putting my head around the corner finally seeing you, I felt so dumb. Can you believe it me and Chickenman like robbing the cradle, you have got to admit he was cute. Wouldn't find seeing him again sometime. Chuck and his feet that was a good laugh.

I was glad to meet Teresa after hearing about her for so long and you to for having to answer questions about Teresa, Playmor etc. I Want you to know I like Teresa a lot.

How's Aunt Joyce & Uncle Dean getting along did you write them yet be sure to send them that picture they wanted. Uncle Dean's not going to let you forget about that sleepin bag joke you just watch and see.

Janice Lutz 10th

Oh, listen to this one Tatty, I guess wa watching us during lunch today 4/23/80 when ~~Tatty~~ Pierre was going to get somethin to put on his hamburger, I said that I was staring at him, he goes yeah Annas is in love with Pierre, I'm going sure but the only thing about it I wasn't wat him.

After all these crazy things have happen to you and me, I still think of you as my best friend and you are and hope always will be. I'm glad you are my friend don't ever forget about me.

Love you
your friend,
